“ Me and my husband seen Tony a few years ago. It was good to see him. Tony was there for me in high school when my parents divorced. He made me laugh and he always had that smile. A smile as big as his heart. I will miss him. My prayers and thoughts are that the family will have comfort and peace in knowing how many people Tony gave a smile to. May God bless you all.

“ I hadn't seen Tony since we graduated but my heart is nontheless heavy. We were classmates together in primary, junior high, and high school. Needless to say, we grew up together. I can still see Tony as the little kid in my class whose hair was as blond as mine and who was liked by all. Tony was a good human being and I shall miss him. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. May they know that he brought smiles and laughter to all of us who were lucky enough to call him our friend.

“ Tony was a classmate of mine. He always had a smile on his face and something funny to say. I saw him at my church a few months ago. That was the first time I had seen him in several years. Glad to have gotten a hug and a laugh from my old friend. May God bless his family.
