“ One of the saddest times of my life. Watching you become the opposite of what I knew you were growing up was life changing for both of us. You were a leader. A hard worker. A man to admire. An uncle to influence a nephew. Cancer sucks! Love you & see you soon.

“ Daddy Its been 2 long years and it has not gotten any easier without you being here. I am sure you know we have moved faraway from everybody splut the family but daddy i tried to keep everyone together i al sorry i beoke my promise to keep the family together. I just lost the fight. Not only have I lost you I lost mommy too. I am not sure what happened but I have no parents. The kids mioss you so much. mary always thinks about you. And donna tells everyone she sees about you. I wish you were here to see them grow and how smart and beautiful they have become. i know i am rambling but this is my only way so no one can see how weak i really am. I am sorry i failed you daddy i wish i could of done more to keep the family together. I lost the battle. You were the glue that kept us all together threw all the times. I do have you in he kitchen with us. one of your favorite places. I am rambling and if anyone reads this they wil thnk iam crazy somedays i think i am. I miss so damn much . you will always be with me. love Rossan##imported-begin##roseann##imported-end##

“ Kouzis, I don't even know where to begin. I have known you almost my whole life. You made me a part of your family from day one and for that I thank you. I've always thought of You and Michelle as my other "Mom & Dad" as I know you thought of me as another daughter. You were always a BIG part of my life and it makes me very sad that you never got to meet your other "grandaughter" Madison because I know in my heart you and her would have adored one another. The fond memories I have of all of us will always remain close to my heart. Rest in peace Kouzis and continue to guide and protect us while you were here on earth. You will remain in our hearts forever. You will be greatly missed. Sandy, Rob & Madison###imported-begin##Sandy, Rob & Madison###imported-end##

“ Dad You fought on of the toughest battles I have ever known. In my eyes you did beat it. You were so brave and never let us know how scared you really were. You showed me how to fight when things get bad. And they did sometimes. You have made me the strong woman I am today. I will miss our talks. Sitting with you in the morning over coffee. Even now i still wait to hear the shuffle of your feet coming into the kitchen. I know you are at peace now no more pain daddy. You can rest. I will take care of Mommy, Mary, Donna, Richie and Venetia as best as I can. I miss you Dad. I love you!! Love Roseann##imported-begin##Roseann##imported-end##

“ Our dear friend, we will miss you dearly & we know you are now at peace in God's arms. We pray that God will watch over you and your family who have also suffered so much. We will always treasure our memories and your friendship. Memories of our coffee "clutches" as you used to call them to our weekly dinners at Calico or Park West Diner. We shared together as friends ALL of our disappointments & celebrations of life. We cried together and laughed together. We will never forget how you came to NH with us on the most dreadful day of our lives & how Michele just loved to tag along with us went we went up north. Almost 30 years of friendship, how lucky are we -THANK YOU LORD! You and Michele were a large part of our lives and we will never forget you. Love always, Your friends Art & Donna##imported-begin##Donna & Arthur##imported-end##

“ Pops, I will forever miss sending you to your room anytime you had gotten cranky. Taunting you because of your thick accent. But I have many unforgettable memories kept in my mind that will stay with me forever. I'm truly saddened by the lose of you. You truly left a permant imprint in my life. Love your other adopted daught. Always Heather###imported-begin##Heather###imported-end##

“ Dear Michelle and family, We are so sorry about Ross. He was a wonderful person to know. Anthony has so enjoyed working at the restaurant and will miss being able to spend time with Ross after the crowds had gone home and he was with your family. You have to believe he is now at peace--and cooking up a storm up there! Sincerely, Anthony and Ann###imported-begin##Anthony Freda/Ann Dale###imported-end##
