“ If you were a Choir kid at Woodridge High School in the 80's you would have been aware of the legendary Troy Metzner. He was the lead in the play Fiddler on the roof, soloist with a famous duet with the Kermit the Frog. Singing "It isn't easy being Green." He was a entertainer and charismatic. He was kind and faithful to his family and his church. Ellen and he were I think looking back, was a plan in God's intimate wisdom. They have a beautiful family. I was so thankful to reconect on Facebook with Troy and Ellen in the last few years. Teve' you truly were a rich man. Ellen, you and your family are in my prayers and thoughts. ”

“ I married Troy's uncle, Larry Freed, and first met Troy at a family reunion in 1969. Only 4 or 5, he was the sweetest little boy. Our meetings in later years confirmed that first impression. God bless his grieving family.
