“ Truman and his wife Margaret were very kind to me while I was growing up. I spent alot of time playing with their youngest children, Cristy and Clint. They were always welcoming to all that entered their home. The love they had for each other is something I try to emmulate in my own family today. I am saddend by the news of their loss. My heart goes out to the family.##imported-begin##Melissa (Meeks) Mattison##imported-end##
