“ Dennis, Brenda, Nick and family We would like to extend our deepest heartfelt sympathy. We were just sent the article from the paper about the loss of dear Tyler. Even though we have not seen Tyler or your family for several years we have deep loving memories. What a wonderful, brave and handsome son. Fond memories of young Tyler sitting on the counter and helping bake banana bread, or supervising poached eggs. Our love and prayers have been with him from the start and will not end now that he is in God's playground. The loss of a child has to be one of the worst of losses, but he is pain free and with us all. He smiles down on all of us and will watch over his loved ones until we can meet again. We hold you all in our hearts forever. Lee and Margo Sanders###imported-begin###Lee and Margo Sanders###imported-end##

“ My Cousin by Carolyn Hoomana People never knew just how much he meant to me and you They knew him by name, but it's still not the same His eyes so bright, his smile so wide We always let him know we were right there by his side Now he's gone from me and you Now we have no reason to be blue We loved him, he loved us And we have to try not to fuss He said goodbye and gave you a kiss Now all we can do is reminis Why does God take the best to love Up to that great big world up above? His memory will never leave His kind and gentle smile will always be seen Never forget him, never let him leave your mind Tell him you love him, just one more time.###imported-begin###Bubba###imported-end##

“ Brenda, Nick, Joanna & Dennis We all know what a special young man Tyler was. He was so very special to me and Marty. They are right now together either playing that playstation or Marty is teaching him golf: I will always have the fondest memories of an extraordinary young man who impacted so many lives. Tyler surely was a blessing to so many, as well as your family. We all will miss him so much. The Bible says we all should celebrate at this time for Heaven has a new angel smiling and looking upon us; he made it home. All the heavens are rejoicing. May God bless you and keep you. It's not goodbye; it's until we meet again.##imported-begin##linda brindle##imported-end##

“ Dear Brenda, I know there's not a whole lot I can say to make any one feel better right now. I will tell you that you had a verry special son who was recognized more than you'll ever know, he went to school with my kids Marie, Tiffany, and Christian, He was mentioned often in this household and how nothing stopped him from being a good child, he never strayed off that path... My husband does'nt talk alot about anything, but one day Tyler touched him in a way that he will never forget... See TJ went on a field trip a few years ago, an outdoor survival trip, Tyler was on TJ's team, My husband came home and sat down and told me how great this child was, you see while all the other kids were moaning and groaning over having to do the courses TJ said that kid never complained, NOT ONCE... He said that child climbed that rock wall like a person with 4 arms, and so now I say he's climbed it to heaven, God just got a great helper in his kingdom of heaven, you should be soooo verry proud, He will be often thought of, I'm so sorry I did't make it to the funeral, we have been through loosing TJ's Dad this year and I just went into remission with cancer, to be honest I wished God had taken me and not Tyler, For I have lived longer.... Tyler was a good child and I wish he was still here he was a great inspiration to many, I hope he woke up a few people and could show them what life realy represents he was a gift to us all, JoAnne I love you girl... Tyler was here to make you strong I'm thinking of you everyday. By the way we still have a picture of Tyler climbing that wall, TJ kept it in his archives of picture... I'm not sure if you have it, if not let me know, I'll make sure you get it, TJ took alot of pictures for the school. Brenda Thank you for reaching out to Tiffany, she thinks alot of you. She keeps a picture of you and her togather... I'm so sorry for your loss but he is a great gain in the kingdom of heaven and though he's no longer here on earth he will still be working his special magic on us all. “ To Brenda and all of Tyler's family I am so sorry for your lost. Tyler was a wonderful young man who had a great heart. Tyler was a young man that I did every much so admired. Sometimes at school drama would happen between the students, but you would see Tyler walk the other way. He did not like the drama. One day when I saw him walk down the hall, I followed him. I asked him why he turned and walked away when others wanted to know what was going on. He said simply " I learned when I was sick before not to let things like that get to me, things like that are not what is really important." People sweat the small stuff to much and I do not have time for it." Tyler changed me that day and for that I am grateful. I will pray each night for you all. Losing a child is not ever easy, but it makes it harder when you have someone has special as Tyler and who touched so many people. God Bless you all. “ We are so sorry for your lose. In God's Love Joe / Sandi/ Tori / James White He Only Took My Hand "Last night while I was trying to sleep, My son's voice I did hear I opened my eyes and looked around, But he did not appear. He said: "Mom you've got to listen, You've got to understand God didn't take me from you, mom He only took my hand. When I called out in pain that night, The instant that I died, He reached down and took my hand, And pulled me to His side. He pulled me up and saved me From the misery and pain. My body was hurt so badly inside, I could never be the same. My search is really over now, I've found happiness within, All the answers to my empty dreams And all that might have been. I love you all and miss you so, And I'll always be nearby. My body's gone forever, But my spirit will never die! And so, you must all go on now, Live one day at a time. Just understand- God did not take me from you, He only took my hand." ~Author Unknown###imported-begin###Sandi White###imported-end###
