“ It's been a year Momma and I miss you. Tortellini making was emotionally difficult without you. But you taught your kids well and we are passing the tradition on to our kids and your great grands. I am happy that you are not in anymore pain and have joined with the family that went before you. We will be together again one day. I love you. ❤️. Give Hilary xoxoxo and love to all.

“ My grandmother was a very strong woman. The most fiery of firecrackers that you’ll ever meet. Less than 5 foot tall and wasn’t afraid of nothing! I am very fortunate for having her in my life for the past 40 years. She is already greatly missed, but I know she is now happy and at Peace. Reunited with her parents, her daughter, and Donnie, the love of her life. Her greatest love was her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. I have so many memories with her that I will forever cherish as long as I am able to.
