“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

I feel so absolutely blessed that God brought Val into my life. We became absolute "best friends" in a very short time and I will cherish her memory for the rest of my life. I'm so grateful that I had the opportunity to get to know her.

My sympathy to Richard, Tony, Aaron, Judy and the rest of her family and friends. Val will be greatly missed! Prayers for all.

“ Richard, Tony & Aaron: I am so sorry for your loss. Val was such a nice person and constantly spoke of you all often. I enjoyed working with her throughout our time at WINS together. She was one of the first people I met when I joined WINS and we had many wonderful discussions throughout our time working together. She will be missed. - Andy Baratta

“ Dear Richard and Family: I worked with Val for three years at WINS. She was a dedicated professional and friend. I remember her being so excited about the house in Myrtle Beach; showing me pictures, floor plans, and talking about her ideas for the home. Just the other day, I came across an amber butterfly pin she gave to me the first Christmas I was at WINS. She was so thoughtful. My heart goes out to you and the boys and her family. I wish you all love and peace during this difficult time. With sincerest condolences, Diane Bellegarde

“ *Richard and family,
I am so sorry for your loss! Take strength from the fact that you will always carry her in your heart, and she will always be with you.
Val was such a caring person - always willing to help. I will miss her as a friend.

So sorry about Val. I met her on the Dragon Boat. She was such a fun person. I loved seeing her drive away in her convertible.

“ Valerie was an amazing person. She seemed to be constantly in motion. I had the honor of working with Valerie for about 4 years when her children were part of the elementary school drama club I was involved with. Valarie always said, "I don't know anything about theater, but I'll help where ever I can." I truly believe if she had wanted to lead the kids she could have and would have done a wonderful job. She was devoted to her boys, to her husband, to her entire family and to her friends. She truly cared about people and would go out of her way to help them. She now rests in God's arms. Prayers for Richard, Tony, Aaron and family. Love you Val. Always in our hearts.
