Ms. Vera was a kind, precious lady whom I loved. She brightened my day every time she came to the Conway Post Office. We were blessed to know her.

“ As a twenty year member of the St. James parish, I was very acquainted with both Vera and her late husband, Fran, whom I visited years ago as a Hospice volunteer. Unfortunately, previous commitments will prevent me from attending Vera's funeral or the Tuesday services. She will be remembered fondly in my prayers. Rest in peace!!
