“ Steve, I am genuinely sorry for your loss. I cannot imagine the depth of your grief; however, I believe that God can. I hope that in due time you receive his peace that excels all thought, so that it will guard your heart and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus. Rest assured that God is love and he cares for all his creatures; therefore, he would never bring us suffering. In 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 God is called the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. Another soothing scripture is Psalm 34:18 which reads: Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. Thus, while you and your family await the Paradise where no one will be sick nor die, may you lean on God to cope with your separation from Vicki. (Psalm 37:29; Isaiah 33:24)

“ I'm so very sadden of the news of Vicki's passing. I hold tight the wonderful memories of a childhood with cousins such as Vicki. The times of play of children at a restaurant, running in and out the back door and the days spent at the home I so enjoyed visiting. May God comfort each of you during this most difficult time and send His strength to each of you during the days, weeks and months to come. Rodney, Robert, Missy, and Vicki's family sending my love to each of you and my prayers for peace for your hurting hearts.
Love,
Ginger McCants-Haithcock and the McCants Family
