

Victor Mojo

March 20, 1945 - January 24, 2014

Dateline...Myrtle Beach

Victor N. Mojo, age 68, died Friday, January 24, 2014 at Conway Medical Center.

Victor was born March 20, 1945 a native New Yorker, son of the late Nicholas E. and Helen Madeline Polati Mojo.

He was a graduate of Columbia University in New York, NY, where he received both his BS and MBA in Marketing and Finance. Victor was a US Army veteran having proudly served his country during the Vietnam War where he received many commendations; including two purple hearts. He was an entrepreneur, working in the healthcare and technology sectors throughout his career. Victor had a huge heart, enjoying time with his family, friends and especially his children. He loved life and making people laugh. There was never a dull moment when Vic was around.

Victor is survived by his wife; Patricia Mojo; six children, Sara Vasquez of NJ, Danielle Mojo of NJ, Brittany Mojo of CA, Nicholas Mojo of NJ, Connor and Casey Mojo both of Myrtle Beach; two grandchildren, Niko and Jessica Vasquez of NJ; and one sister, Susan Wakefield of NY.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11:00 AM Friday, January 31, 2014 at St. James Catholic Church with Father Tim Lijewski officiating. Burial with military honors will be held at Florence National Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 5:00-7:00 PM Thursday, January 30, 2014 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel.

“ Our families were friends. My dad Victor and his dad Nick were old friends and reconnected when we lived in Huntington Station and them in Hicksville. Victor and I used to say we were going for a walk so we could smoke cigarettes.

Oh Danielle, your father was a great leader at Synetics in Jersey City, New Jersey. He got that office opened and many of us from Massachusetts came down to support it. I even worked there for a year and enjoyed it immensely. I'm so sad that he left this world too soon... he was always so interesting. Also impeccably dressed and just a dynamic person you must miss him so much. My heart hurts for your loss. Very glad to see that he had many children and grandchildren to carry on his legacy. Hugs.
