“ Aunt Vina was a very special aunt. Uncle Joe and anut vina took special care of me when my daddy past away in 1965. I will never forget when they lived outside of conway after crossing bear swamp back in a big old house. Danny and Vicki was staying ther at that time. I remember Danny and vicki went to go out and I cryed to go with them. I remember when uncle Joe and aunt Vina would go and stay with Mrs Green, of course they would take me and we would spend the night. Uncle Joe would give me a dime each day to buy me a pepsi with, and I remember I opened the cash register to put the dime in it and he got on me good but would not spank me. I will always remember them for helping take care of my daddy, his brother Kelly that had many strokes and past away at the age of 57 years old. I will never forget the memories of uncle Joe and anut Vina,they were very special to my mother brothers and sisters. My prayers will be with you Danny, vicki, and family. Thanks Danny and family for your love and kindness. In Christ John L. Jones Sr.##imported-begin##JOHN L. JONES SR.##imported-end##
