Joanne and Children,

Our deepest condolences go out to you and your families. I remember cousin Vince for always having a smile on his face and a twinkle in his eyes. He had the unique ability to raise the spirits of everyone around him.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ My Sympathy to the family.

Thanks for being a friend and classmate. We shared some good times and lots of laughs. You always made it easy and you will be missed and always remembered. Have a good journey on your way to see our Lord and make space for us who are coming.

“ Hi Matt,

Here are some memories and thoughts about your dad

I would like to convey my deepest sympathy of the passing of Mr. Malena.....my memories of this great man go back a long way....to when Matt and I became best friends at a very young age some 40+ years ago. I remember Mr. Malena.....and it will always be Mr. Malena to me, even though in my adult years he told me to call him Vince.....with a man of his character I could not call him that and as a simple gesture of the respect I had for him it was always Mister to me. Not too many people remember the man as I do....the Post Man, the arcade owner, the bike shop owner, motel manager,the traveller and the ROCK of the Malena family. Mr. Malena was always a welcoming soul....no matter the ruckus Matt and I would get into....he would straighten us out and we both are the men we are today because of his influence. I am a better man just knowing him for all these years and always knowing what he stood for.....hard work and dedication and do you best in every situation.

My heart is heavy with his passing, but I know he is looking down on us and will always be in our hearts. A man of his calibre does not merely pass away, but lives on through each and every one of us, his family and friends. Even though our last names are different, Mr. Malena was always and will be a second dad to me.

May our Lord Jesus keep you and deliver you through this tough time and may he Bless you all !!!
