“ I never witnessed a closer friendship than the one between Vinnie and my dad Henry. They were more like brothers than friends. Whenever my dad would introduce him, he would say "This is my best friend Vinnie".

I too loved Vinnie with all my heart and made sure to keep in touch. He always had such an upbeat personality with a phenomenal sense of humor. Even recently, when I last spoke to him, we shared laughs and memories together.

God bless you, my dear friend Vinnie, and my deapest condolences to Teresa, Loretta, Vincent Jr. and his entire family. I will be giving a donation to St. Jude's hospital in his memory.

"Vinny" & I shared a very special friendship -- in Brooklyn for many years. We first met when he was a car service driver. Many times he would drive me places when he retired. I went through some difficult times & always knew that I could count on Vinny to drive me & pick me up. We both lost many friends & so we treasured thevm one we developed. Vinny was patient, kind & honest.. However. if he thought something was unjust, he was fire & brimstone. I met his love, Marie a couple of times & hope God blesses her with good health & beautiful memories. He loved his family, children & " little "Vinny"... love you Vin.... I'll see you in my dreams❤️ Mary Ann Pantano
