“ I met Viola when she first worked with the county and then at HTC..and then at JRueben for the county again....she was always a person who would help you..always strived to improve herself and her family....She helped me distribute applications for library cards to Latinos that passed by her job..she cared about the community as well as herself. I truly miss you Viola..We all do.. I am proud to have known you.. on behalf of myself and the kids you helped fill out library cards who wont see you again.. love Manny###imported-begin###Manuel Vega###imported-end##

“ What a shock. I worked with Viola 1 summer at Apache Campground. We became friends and often spoke of our husbands. She never complained about John and she was so proud of Ronnie. I had not spoke with her in several months, but she was often on my mind. She was a little spitfire, not afraid to say what was on her mind. We had some great laughs and I now have those memories. If you knew her, you have some wonderful memories too. She was a joy. My thoughts and prayers have been the the family since I learned of the tragedy.###imported-begin###Leona Wood###imported-end##

“ I was saddened today when I was notified about the Viola and John. I worked with Viola at Fulton Employment Services and enjoyed getting to know Viola and her family. When my mother passed away suddenly, someone told me that death leaves holes in your heart which will eventually heal, but the scars will never go away. My family and I send our condolences to the family and hope that Ronnie knows there are many people thinking about him. Ronnie now has an special angel watching over him.##imported-begin##Karen Pratt##imported-end##

“ When you loose someone so tragically it's a hard thing to understand or grasp-just know that so many others share in the family's grief-and only the belief and faith in something much more divine than we are is going to be the deciding factor for healing and forgiving. Sometimes the human mind and humankind itself can be so cruel and unusual-We share your grief and we offer up love and support to your family in this time of berievement. Be strong Ronnie and know that your mother's life was not in vain. Bless you all.##imported-begin##Anonymous##imported-end##

“ To the Family: My prayers are with you in this tough time. You have lost a special person that touched many lives. I am so glad I had the privilege to know her I worked with her in Human Resources and we went shopping togehter. Ronnie, I'm sorry for your lost. Please try to forgive John for what he has done and the pain he has caused and remember your mom always in your heart and she'll be there.##imported-begin##Michelle Owens##imported-end##
