

Violet Mae Harrison

May 31, 1948 - February 18, 2026

Myrtle Beach-

Mrs. Violet Harrison entered into the presence of her Lord and Savior surrounded by the love she so freely gave throughout her life on Wednesday, February 18, 2026. A sweet and caring lady with a loving heart, Violet's life was a beautiful reflection of grace, kindness, and deep devotion to her family and her faith. She was born on May 31, 1948 to parents William Bostic and Blanche Huffman Bostic in White Sulphur Springs, WV.

She was a wonderful wife, a nurturing mother, and a treasured Nana. Her family was her greatest joy, and she poured herself wholeheartedly into every moment shared with them. Friends and loved ones will forever cherish the laughter, wisdom, warmth, and precious memories made in her presence.

Violet was an encourager to all who knew her and a true prayer warrior. She loved not only her family but also her church family, serving and supporting others with humility and compassion. She was gracious and deeply appreciative of even the smallest acts of kindness shown to her, always responding with gratitude and a gentle smile.

Though she will be greatly missed, Violet would want all who love her to find comfort in knowing where she is and what she is doing. She is no longer in pain. She is at peace, rejoicing in the presence of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ—the One she loved so dearly and served so faithfully.

Her legacy of faith, love, and encouragement will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.

She is survived by her husband of 56 years, Reverend Cleveland Harrison; daughter, Dawn Michelle Harrison (John); granddaughter, Mariah Dawn Lowery; sisters, Debbie Neff (Bob), Nora Shirley (William); niece, Kimberly Shirley (Patrick); great-nephew, Braxton Samuel Parker; and a number of other close nieces, nephews, family members and friends.

“ Dear Aunt Fro,
I bet heaven is awesome. I'm glad you aren't suffering anymore. Gigi beat you there, did yall finish up your who you calling old scrap? We all miss you down here a bunch. Kim and I have no hair to poof anymore and make you mad at us. The first time I met you was in Henderson when we we stayed with y'all before the Britney Spears concert. You threw down in the kitchen that weekend and really made me feel welcome in your home. I hope someone got the recipes for your sausage balls, and breakfast casserole. I remember the way you and Cleve laughed when Kim told you I asked about the snakes in the church. The night I proposed to Kim you were the first one to know and asked her if it's what she wanted and said how pretty the ring was, the next day Nora gave me her speech about not doing Kim wrong and you told her sister stop. She was just protecting her little girl. I knew you always loved peanut brittle and popcorn and that's why I always snuck you some even though it made you cough and puke. Kim used to get so mad at me when I'd give you some and you'd tell her Oh just shut up. Braxton misses you something awful but he knows you're up there in heaven. He was so tiny when you first met him and now he's almost four. He'll be looking for your favorite planet. Where did the time go. Give everyone hugs for us down here, especially mackie and the skydiving hamster. Oh one more thing i know you didn't like UNC and always wanted Kim to root for Duke so this is for you Go Duke!
Love ya aunt fro
Until we see you in heaven
Patrick.

“ I have good memories of Violet. Attending church together at the Church of God located at that time on Tuckahoe road in White Sulphur Springs WV. We were good friends and spent many Sunday afternoons together at my house before returning to church for the evening service. She was so much a lady in her dress and demeanor. She was a positive in my life as a young teen. She will be missed and loved by many.
