“Syd and I send our love to family gathered to say good-bye to Aunt Ginny. My fondest memories are of the nights that she and Uncle Herman would come to our house on Henning Drive. My parents would get dressed up and they would all go out together. But first we kids got to play with them, since my parents were always late. There was just fun in the air--a bit of naughtiness and much love. Thanks for her life. Love, Bryan's Judy###imported-begin###Judith Simpson White###imported-end##

“My dear family, please know that our prayers, and all of our loving memories of a gallant lady are with you, surrounding you, embracing you. I also remember the times at the beach- so many sweet memories there. Of young boys tugging me down the stairs to the ocean, of cool flyboys at the officer's club playing pool: of beloved family assembling in the dining room for yet another delicious gathering. So many memories, so much love, so little space! Know that all of our hearts hold you in the midst of this extraordinary family's love, always.###imported-begin###Mary Hicks###imported-end##

“ Dear Dennis and David and Uncle Herman: Our memories of good times, silly times, and so many loving times are legion. The 1000 characters allotted here will hardly suffice to recollect -- and savor -- them all. So let's keep it simple: your mother, our Aunt Ginny, was a fine mixture of true grit and a lady's grace. She and Uncle Herman were very important to our parents in these last years, when they weren't able to meet face to face, but had wonderful visits over the phone. Ginny in particular was most generous with the gift packages of lovely creams and lotions which my mother so enjoyed. Ah, the spa life! And then there were the memorable visits to the South Carolina coast -- and having breakfast at Herman and Ginny's favorite spot. But fear not, all those good times are not come and gone -- they live on in memory. But we will miss Ginny...and that's all there is to it. The Nesbitt family sends love to you in this sorrowing time.##imported-begin##Brenda Hicks Nesbitt##imported-end##

“ I will always remember the wonderful times we had at the beach and at Christmas with the family. I will miss the smile on your face as you watched the great grandchildren open their gifts and how much joy you brought to them. I remember when Matthew was born and you came to see him in intensive care and they told you that your rings would have to come off and that you did not take them off for anyone, but Matthew was someone special and I will always remember that. We love and miss you dearly. With all my heart I love you! Dennie##imported-begin##Dennis R. White Jr##imported-end##
