“ I never met Virginia Fielder in person, but feel like I knew her by virtue of the wonderful stories and photos Lee has shared with us for years. It's amazing how much Lee is like her mother. Not afraid to speak her mind, always ready with something to say that makes us laugh or take notice, and a compassion for others as evidenced by her love for family, friends and animals. I never knew you, Mrs. Fielder, but am sure your candlelight of love will burn in the hearts of others for years and years to come. God bless you.

“ Aunt Virginia's love for life was contagious. It was always fun to be around her. I fondly remember her telling me stories about her older brother Fred (my father). Marna Elliott

“ Fond memories of Aunt Virginia, she invited our family to lunch on our way to Kentucky Lake. She made an array of delicious finger sandwiches and also sent off with a big box of sandwiches for the car ride too. Linda and Dick Elliott and family

“ Loved her sense of humor, love for her girls, nonjudgemental, smart as could be. Loved she was up for about anything, love for her Lord and church, always welcoming. Paula Aubrey
