Virginia Rice

Virginia Rice, loving and devoted wife, mother, proud grandmother and loyal friend passed away unexpectedly on Friday, March, 20th. Born in the Bronx, Virginia was a New Yorker through and through. She fell in love with a boy from the Bronx named Ed Rice. They were happily married for 54 years. Three children, two sons-in-law, a daughter in-law and four beautiful grandchildren completed what was her most precious possession in life... family. To her family, Virginia was many things: lawyer, chef, cop (she was really good at that one), nurse, counselor, confidant, music lover and psychic; above all, a fierce protector of those she loved. Virginia had a strong faith in God that she passed along to her family. She loved to laugh and dance with her husband. She found joy in the little things, and her special touch and attention to detail is what made our house a home. Virginia had an endless font of forgiveness and a huge capacity to love. She made this world a better place, and she will be dearly missed.

Virginia is survived by her loving husband Edward J. Rice of Pawleys Island, SC, daughter Deborah and her husband Kevin Bradley and their three children: Kevin Jr., Sean and Madison of Fairfield, CT, daughter Mary and her husband Kevin Regenhard and son Collin of Pearl River, NY, and son Edward J. Rice, Jr. and his wife Kristen of Blauvelt, NY.

A funeral mass will be held 10:30 AM Wednesday, March 25, 2015 at Precious Blood Church of Christ, 1633 County Rd S-22 Pawleys Island, SC 29585 with repast following and 9:00 AM Saturday, March 28, 2015 at St. Pius X, 834 Brookside Dr. Fairfield, CT 06824 with repast following.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

“ Dear Debbie,

I'm so sorry to hear of your beloved Mom's passing. While I didn't know your mom, from the loving tribute that's written in her obituary you shared, I can imagine the loss you must be feeling.

I will keep you and your family in my prayers for God's tender mercy and pray that you find solace know that your beautiful Mother is now in our Lord's loving embrace.

Love and prayers,

Denise Lauro and Family

“ My Dearest Debbie... (and to your family...)

I send you all of my love and hold you in my heart. I am so sorry to know of the passing of your mom. I had the honor to meet both your parents when our first borns were young and played together.

The obituary for your mom was so lovely to read -- what an amazing woman. May her memory fill you and God's mercy and peace comfort you.

I will think of you and hold you in my thoughts and prayers. God's peace my faith filled friend. You know she is forever now and everlasting with our beautiful God.

I send my love and walk with you in your sorrow.

with all my love and heartfelt condolences...
