

Vivian D Workman

October 15, 1927 - July 6, 2016

Vivian D. Workman

Murrells Inlet

Vivian D. Workman, age 88, died Wednesday, July 6, 2016 at Tideland Waccamaw Community Hospital.

Born in Morganton, NC, she was the daughter of the late Glenn Kenton and Nanny Harrell Denman. She was in business as a cosmetologist for 48 years in Charleston and James Island eventually owning her own business at King and Tradd Street. With determination, she put her two children through college. Her greatest delight was her grandchildren, great grandchildren, her many friends, and shopping. She was preceded in death by her husband, Wayne Workman and daughter, Patricia Watt.

Survivors include her son, Larry Watt and wife Bruton of Denmark, SC; grandchildren, Kenton, Bill, and Carlyle Watt; six great grandchildren; and a brother, Buck Denman and wife Bobbie of Tupelo, MS.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 AM, Saturday, July 9, 2016 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel with Reverend Brad Bellah officiating.

Memorial donations may be made to the animal shelter of one's choice.

Sign an online guestbook at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

CP

“ So very sorry for your loss. Miss Vivian was one of the sweetest, most positive lady I have ever met, and what a lady she was! I will miss her smile and little chats when she would stop by the office to see Terri. Rest in Peace Miss Vivian.

Carol Pickett

Carol Pickett - July 09, 2016 at 06:52 AM

FM

“ To my mother, Frances Middleton, who lived a few doors away from Vivian's shop on King Street, Vivian was so much more than her cosmetologist. She was a great and long time friend. If mother were alive, she would be very sad today. Francis Middleton

frank middleton - July 09, 2016 at 06:43 AM

LL

“ I was her yard man but felt friendship and love for her. She was a beautiful lady inside and out. She will be missed by so many. Larry Lones

Larry Lones - July 08, 2016 at 08:52 PM

LF

“ Vivian was my neighbor at Pirate Cove. I loved catching up with her when i was down. Such a sweet lady!! She will be missed. Lynn Fitch

Lynn Fitch - July 07, 2016 at 08:50 PM