“ Wallace, I loved you like a Father and you were a special person to me. I'm gonna miss those rides to calabash just to eat at your favorite seafood place (The Seafood Hut). And I enjoyed every little talk we had. You taught me so much since I've been apart if this family and you welcomed me with open arms. You even told me that I was daughter you never had. I love you so much and hated to let you go but you told us all you were ready no matter what and so I then prepared myself for the day JESUS took you. Its hard and will be for a long time. But I've gotta take to heart the live and memories we shared and hold in to that until we meet again. Don't worry too much over your son(Lanny) I promise to do all I can to be by his side and take care of him and love him. He misses both you and Hazel heartland y'all will never be forgotten. Jase and Annabelle loved y'all so much. (POPPY).

“ *Dear Lanny & family,
Mom really thought a lot of uncle Wallace. He was one of her favorites, but we have a special family anyway. You are in my prayers.*

“ Lanny, so sorry to hear about your dad. He was a special person. I remember mom would make apple spice cake to have on tobacco gathering days at break. Wallace loved that cake. He would come to the barn even on days he wasn't helping gather to see if mom had made that cake. He will be missed. Many thoughts and prayers for your and the family.
