“ I remember my Uncle Wallace fondly as a little girl. He would tease us along with my cousins, his daughters. He was a Goodman who loved his family and God. I know the reunion was sweet in heaven as all of his siblings and parents welcomed him into heaven.

“ Wallace was part of our community for many years. Ron and he worked on many projects from building to woodcutting. When they were on these projects he spoke often about his children. He was a talented woodworker. Our thoughts and prayers are with you as you lay your father to rest
