“ Praying for the family. I had the pleasure of working along side Mr. Wallace at The Trestle Bakery for a couple of years. Mr. Wallace was always smiling and was such a kind and gentle and caring man. He reminded me so much of my dad, not only in his spirit but his looks and demeanor. I know his family will miss him greatly, I am praying that God give them peace in knowing that he is in Heaven now. All of us that knew him will truly miss him also. Heaven gained an angel in him.. Rest in Peace Mr. Wallace..

“ Dear Singleton Family, our love and prayers are with all of you in your time of loss. Wallace was a special person, and Jimmy and I enjoyed having him and your family as neighbors. Wallace was the anchor in your family and it is evident that he loved all of you dearly. I always enjoyed Brandon sharing with me the stories and the menu of comfort foods that he prepared for the weekly Singleton Family suppers. Wallace is at peace with God now, but he will never truly be gone. He lives on in the wonderful memories we all have of him and in the lives of the loving Christian family that he and Jonell created. You are in my heart. May God be with you, Shaula Richardson

“ Mrs. Singleton, Tammy, Ty and family, I am so sorry to hear about Mr. Singleton.

No one could ever pass up the sweet eats Mr. Wallace made. There have never been any before or since to top them and he always seemed to enjoy watching everyone lose all control and pigging out on them. Please know that I am thinking of you all today and in the days ahead and will be praying for your family. God bless

I am so sorry for your loss. Mr. Wallace was a great boss and person all around. No one made cream puffs like Mr. Wallace and no one will ever top his doughnuts. He was the Man for the bakery. He will be long remembered. Again I am so sorry for your loss. Earths loss is Heavens gain. You all are in my prayers.

“ My mom always depended on Wallace when it came to buying meats when he worked at the Red and White. He was always so nice. I know he will be missed.

I remember Mr. Wallace from going to Piggly Wiggly with my mom when I was a little girl. He was the sweetest person and made the best cakes, donuts, cookies, etc. As I grew up, I followed him wherever he went - I didn't want a birthday cake unless he had made it. I know everyone at The Trestle will miss him. He was loved by anyone who knew him.
