“ Dad always was their for us no matter what crazy stuff we got into, he always treated my friends like family and took care of us all.

Heaven got a new angle on Tuesday May 31, 2016. His struggle with the pain is over, and now he can rest and be with all his family in heaven as he looks over us from up above, still watching us all as the protector that he always has been.

love always and forever you will always be in our hearts and minds till we meet again in gods great grace in heaven.

Love you always,

Walter could tell some of the wildest stories of how he grew up on his grandmothers farm chasing the chickens, out running the rabbits, fighting the chickens for scratch while pulling his little red wagon. He would keep us in stitches for hours.

He was my first love and only love and I will miss him but I know he is with the Lord and is no longer in pain. I will always carry him in my heart and remember the good times and the fact that he loved his children and his grandchildren.

Your wife forever Nancy

The funny stories about growing up on the farm were true. I was one of them and he was my best buddy. I will never forget him. I am so sorry for your loss and pray for your comfort.
