“ My deepest sympathy to the entire Dunn Family. So loved Myron and Maxine. They were instrumental in Keith and and my lives when we moved here - greeted us the first day at Church and remained friends since 1996. Never to be forgotten and always close in our hearts. They are together now in the heavenly realm. May our Loving Lord give you each strength and comfort. Hold your wonderful memories close to your heart. Much love and God Bless.

“ What a wonderful, humble, man. He told a story that when he had hip replacement surgery he was told to go to therapy. When he arrived, they were weaving baskets. Not one to make waves, he simply joined in and wondered how this would help his hip...Love you Myron, rest in peace. Prayers to all who loved and admired him.
