

Warren William Schuchardt

March 15, 1949 - March 4, 2026

Warren William Schuchardt, age 76, died on Wednesday, March 4, 2026 at Tideland's Waccamaw Community Hospital.

Born in St. Louis, MO, Warren was a son of the late Arthur and Maxine Schuchardt. Warren owned several businesses but spent most of his working life at Duke Fluor, a commercial construction company. His family often teased him, calling him a gypsy, as he worked in numerous cities all over the United States and internationally. He enjoyed fishing, boating and riding his motorcycle. With his dry sense of humor and using sarcasm as a second language, Warren never met a stranger and made dear friends wherever he went.

Warren is preceded in death by his step father, Gilbert Marquez, step mother, Erma Schuchardt, and his wife, Wanda Schuchardt.

Survivors include his fiancée, Sharon Barker; children, Kitrina Tinnin (Tim), Mendi Leigh (Paul Carrizosa), Lisa Sykes, William Dickson, Sheila Barker (Jim), Amy Hardy (Brian), Jay Barker (Cyndy); grandchildren, Tyler Renkemeyer (Hope), Jordan Sankpill (Nick), Paul Carrizosa Jr. (Kayla), Hannah Carrizosa (Marcel Diaz), Ryley Ellisor (Wade), Kayla Mersch (Kyle), Maicey Hardy, Cooper Hardy, Johnny Barker; great grandchildren, Madeline, Lydia, Vivian, Stella, Everleigh, Daniel, Haddie, Isaiah, Ezra, Jackson; siblings, Jerry Schuchardt (Irma), Connie Weigel; and his beloved cat, Phoebe.

Services will be private.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is serving the family.
