“ We met Wendy and her husband, Dick, at the West Yellowstone Rod Run in 2009. My husband, Gary and I, along with our Texas and Wyoming friends, became best friends after that. We will miss her smiling face and pleasant personality. She was loved by all. RIP my friend.

“ When I first moved to the mountains, I was shy and alone. Wendy reached out to me and made me feel welcome. She was always so kind and cheerful. What a great woman she was!

“ I first met Wendy and Dick in West Yellowstone, Mt., at the rod run. Somewhere around 2009. We all became fast friends. It was like we had known them you many years. We so enjoyed them staying in our home when they would travel to Texas for my car show. The sweet memories Wendy has left me with, will have to do until i see her and Dick on the other side. I will always cherish or friendship. I love you Wendy J. 💚💙

“ Wendy was my dear friend. We worked at First Union National Bank together. She taught me how to make a martini. I remember Wendy and Dick’s wedding and I brought their wedding cake in my car from Charlotte to Gastonia. We kept in touch all the years in Colorado; and when she returned to Gastonia, it was as if we never were apart. I will miss her more than words can say.

“ I have been friends with Wendy for over 40 years. We worked together and tore up the town in our 20's. If we didnt speak for a time when we did we picked up right where we left off. She was a giving and loving person. She had an infectious laugh. She loved her family, her fur babies and Dick with all of her heart. I will miss you my friend. Love ya
