“ Dear Trey and Liz, I am so very sorry to hear of Wesleigh Anne's passing. I have been away from work for almost 2 weeks until last night due to low census. Christie told me about everything tonight at work. I am keeping you in my thoughts and prayers, knowing that she is in His loving arms without pain. Please contact me when you can, and know that all of us in CVICU love you both. Take care and be well. Love, Deidre###imported-begin##Deidre Scott###imported-end##

“ Trey & Liz, Some memories are so precious that they are wrapped in love and stored safely in our hearts forever. Though our memories were created over the internet, Wesleigh Anne had become a part of our daily lives as we read your daily postings. We rejoiced and cried with you amongst her progress and setbacks. Mostly we prayed for God's care for the three of you. We love you and thank you for sharing your daughter with so many that couldn't be there. She was loved by many. Joan & Ashleigh Gay###imported-begin##Joan & Ashleigh Gay###imported-end##

“ No words are adequate enough to express our sorrow over the loss of this precious child. You will always have these precious memories of her that will make heaven sweeter than ever. We will be praying for you both in the months to come as you go through this terrible adjustment to this loss. Our Lord always walks us through the storms of life. Some things we just do not understand but trust He has a purpose far beyond our understanding. Our prayers will be with you both Our Love In Christ, The Pierces###imported-begin##Jane and David Pierce###imported-end##
