“ Dear Peggy and Rhonda, We have been praying for you and will continue to do so. Curtis was such a good man, good friend and so loved by all. It has been our pleasure to have been with you at business meetings and dinners thru the working years. Fred loved working with Curtis. He was professional, easy to be around and a joy to know. Even though we are glad he is not having to suffer anymore, it does not make your loss easier. He will be missed by all. “ Our memories of Curtis are of a husband who worshipped his wife, spoiled his daughter and his grandsons. That slow, handsome smile will be long remembered. I can still see Curtis sitting on the dock at the Skippers' beachhouse, enjoying the breeze, the refreshments, and the fellowship. There was never an unkind word spoken about anyone by Curtis, and he had such a gentleness about him. I am sure that magnetism is one of the many traits that caused Peggy to fall in love with him 47 years ago. Our condolences! The memories will help you make it through the tough times. “ Peggy & Family I want to extended my thoughts and prayers to all of you. Curtis and my father (Alvin Humphrey) were long time friends going back to highscool. I was fortunate to also call Curtis my friend. After graduating from College I worked with Curtis at Wangner Systems for many years. He was not only my friend but a mentor as well. I was struck by Curtis's quite strength, professionalism and integrity. He was one of the finest people I've had the honor of working with. Although Curtis is no longer with us the influence he had on myself, as well as countless others remain.##imported-begin##vid Humphrey##imported-end##
