“ To the Family of Mr. Willard Hollis Jr.,

I am saddened to read the passing of Mr. Hollis. I had the privilege of meeting Mr. Hollis on October 26, 2011 as we hosted Honor Flight for WWII Veterans in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. I have a photo of he and I prior to the flight to Washington, DC that morning.

I also have a letter from Mr. Hollis dated 8/12/11 which came with his Honor Flight veteran application. We spoke on the telephone several times...but my fond memory was our first meeting on Honor Flight day 10/26/11.

Rest in peace Mr. Hollis...thank you for serving our country. To family members, I am truly saddened for your loss.

*Respectfully....

Thank you sir, for not only your work with Honor Flight but for taking the time just to speak with my father. I would love to see that picture of the two of you to add to the memories of his time with Honor Flight that day. It was one of the happiest days he has had the past year. If possible email me at colcon218@Verizon.net with the picture. I would greatly appreciate it. Chuck Hollis
