

William A. Hartfelder

August 23, 2005

William Anton Hartfelder, age 90 of Jensens Village died Tuesday, August 23, 2005 at National Healthcare of Garden City. Born June 18, 1915 in Yonkers, NY, he was the son of the late Friedrich and Marie Mack Hartfelder. Mr. Hartfelder was a World War II, US Army veteran receiving the Bronze and Silver stars. He was a member of the B-26 Maruader Historical Society and a charter member of the World War II Veteran Memorial. Mr. Hartfelder was a member of Shephard of the Sea Lutheran Church. He was a member of Jensens Park Jack Club and bowling league. Surviving are his wife of 62 years, Margaret Hartfelder of Garden City Beach; son, Rev. William Anton Hartfelder, Jr. and wife Julie of Westerville, OH; daughter, Karen DeAngelis of Mohopel, NY; grandchildren, Kurt, Eric, Lauren Hartfelder, Christy Ann DeAngelis Decat and husband Franc. Memorial services will be 11:00 AM, Saturday at Shephard of the Sea Lutheran Church directed by Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel. Memorials may be made to Shephard of the Sea Lutheran Church, PO Box 1750, Murrells Inlet, SC 29576.

Tribute Wall

“ Willie as he was known at Otto Brehm was my introduction to the company that he had worked for so many years. For I was to relieve him of his duties and try to benefit the company as much as I could. He was a good teacher and a good man. I'm sure he had many good years after his retirement. my family and I wish our deepest condolences, and prayers for him and his family.##imported-begin##James McCaffrey##imported-end##

August 30, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Deepest condolences. I worked with Willie for several years at Otto Brehm in Yonkers.##imported-begin##Stanley Iwanowski##imported-end##

August 28, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Worked with Willie for many years and when he retired I spent several weeks with him visiting his customers who spoke highly of him. My condolences to Mickey and the children.##imported-begin##Frank & Marge Stramowski##imported-end##

August 26, 2005 at 12:00 AM