“ Mrs. Barb,
I am so sorry I wasn't able to get over to see Mr. Bill. I will sure miss him! I wish I could have been able to fix his cellphone for him one last time, I was going to tell him that I had it all set up for him to call me from heaven 😭. It was a pleasure knowing him! My thoughts are with you and your entire family during this difficult time Mrs. Barb! I will stop by soon!

“ My heart is heavy. It was nearly 20 years ago, when I met my golfing buddy, Bill Adams. Many times, many golf courses, the gentleman that he was, always had a smile on his face. I will never forget him.

“ We are sorry for your loss. Your Dad will always be remembered in our hearts. Our time at Forest Lake together was wonderful. The kids will always remember how Uncle Bill would have them turn the bar is open sign before serving them sodas as they perched on bar stools. We were so fortunate to have been able to visit your parents last summer and hear about all their cruise adventures. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Love Sandra, Dennis, Michelle, Kelly, Allison and Michael

“ *In my mind he's still six feet taller than me and tickles me when he gives me a hug. I've always looked up to him for so many reasons and I'll miss him for all those reasons and more. Thanks for always taking me out on the boat --even when you were hoping for quiet.
Love from the #1 granddaughter, Juli*
