“ Not having any family in Myrtle Beach, The Davis and Ammons families took me in when I was 7 years old. I will always remember the crazy jokes and wild sayings that Uncle WL would say Love you and praying for your family.

“ Every year in school we always had a fire prevention week,,and with this came a visit from the Myrtle Beach fire department. As all of us were gathering outside I would be searching to see who could be on the fire truck this year. And what a joy it was to a 3rd grader to be able to smile and wave and don't forget brag a little that the dressed up fireman was none other than my uncle WL . I have many wonderful memories of him but this one just sticks out in my mind when he waved at me and let me be his assistant down front. I know my uncle L in many different settings and stages of life, but when I remember him now this is how I will see him,standing on that fire truck with his handsome uniform on smiling down at me with that CRAZY AMMONS twinkle in his eyes and always smiling. LOVE YOU Uncle WL. I know you are having a celebration in heaven .
