“ My Daddy was a very loving, caring, and gentle man. He would help anyone if he could. He loved to talk to family and friends. If you came to Momma and Daddy's house and they had anything cooked, you were not going to leave without eating, they always wanted to feed you. Daddy was a wonderful man and he has taught me a lot about life. Never give up and keep on trying. He was a very hard worker and he always provided for us. My favorite memory of Daddy was at Christmas when I was only about 8 years old I believe. He had found a go-cart frame that someone had thrown away and he took it home and fixed it up for me and that is what I got for Christmas. He painted it blue and put a motor on it, and it would fly. I loved that go-cart and it was very special to me.

I Love you Daddy,

Rodney Benton
