“ Bill was a very well respected Chief of CUPD. Personally, Bill provided me with opportunities that others would not. I'll always be indebted to Bill for his understanding and compassion and his belief that everyone deserved a second chance. I'll treasure our time inside and outside the office (golf course).

Condolences to Bills' family and friends.

“ Bill was a classmate of my husband, Rick Boothroyd, in Ithaca, NY. We reconnected again while he was police chief at Cornell. He always shared a big smile and even bigger hug when he saw me on campus. A special person who will be missed by many.

“ I lived across Warren Road from Bill when we were teens. He was such a fun guy. About 10 years ago while I lived in Texas I heard he worked at Cornell so I called him to briefly catch up. He spoke so lovingly about his life and his Bichon Frise dogs. My thoughts and prayers go out to his friends and family.
