“ Bill, the love of my life. Our 33 yrs of life together has been a constant learning experience. You have taught me things that I never knew & then I turn around & teach you things that you never knew. You have been my best friend, a great husband, wonderful father, a great provider. You gave me two wonderful sons whom I very proud of and you have been so proud of them also. You are in the GREATEST place in the whole universe. Tell dad & family & friends that I and the boys will soon see them all. Praise the Lord. Have a Blessed time around the Throne of God. When the Lord calls, I am ready. I'll see you someday. Much Love,##imported-begin##Your Loving Wife, Brenda##imported-end##

“ Mama Brenda, Thad, Bart, and the rest of the family: I don't have a thought of Bill that doesn't make me smile. I never saw Bill when he didn't make me feel like the most special person in the room. I know everyone in Heaven was singing and shouting to greet him when he entered the Pearly Gates. Y'all are like my own family and you are all in my thoughts and prayers. What a blessing we all have to know that Bill is in Heaven! Love always, Steph”

“ My deepest sympathy goes to all of you. You're family has always been a part of ours and we will miss Mr. Bill dearly. This is a poem that has brought much comfort to me since Daddy's passing, I hope it does the same for you. Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there, I did not die. Please let us know if we can ever do anything for you! God Bless!###imported-begin##Christa Zazinski##imported-end##
