“ Dear dad, It is hard to believe that you have moved onto a place that is lined with silver and gold. You will be missed greatly and I will treasure the memories the two of us have made the last 51 years of my life. It makes me happy to know that you are with grandma, papa, Aunt Jeannette, your son and my twin brother Carl and my little baby James William Johnson. Remember what I asked you! Please hold my baby and tell him his mommy will be there one day to hold him. Thanks for being a great father and a loving husband to my mom (Enid) and to (Becky). They were both very lucky and blessed to have you as a husband. I'll make sure they are both looked after and cared for. RIP dad and may your new beginning with Christ be more than you could ever imagine. Until we see each other again! I love you and will miss you deeply!! Your loving daughter, Tina To my family and extended family: may we come together as one enjoying the memories that have been made from knowing and loving this wonderful man. May we continue to grow together and hold onto each other through these tough times and weather the storm together. This new journey will be filled with bumpy roads but, as long as we hold on to our faith, trust in God and remember that God knows what is best for us we will get through this. Thank you to all who have prayed and supported our family through this rough time and thank you for your continued support and prayers. God bless you. “ Dear Tina, Angela and Enid, Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. You and your family have always had a very special place in my heart. I know that this must be a really hard time for your mom since she is in South Africa right now. Please let Enid know that I'm thinking about her and she is also, in my prayers. May the three of you always remember the great times you had together. I am so glad that your father and mother met in Scotland. I can't beleive that they were married for 40 years. I wish I could be there to share this moment with you and his second wife Becky. May God Bless all of you, Jenny###imported-begin##Jenny Stanley###imported-end##

“ Causey family and friends, I am sorry to hear about your loss. I didn't know Mr. Causey very well, but will never forget all of the great memories made growing up next door to the "Ole Pecan Orchard". Friends enjoyed coming over just to watch and sometimes, if lucky, feed the goats. I'm 25 now and still remember coming home from school to find Mr. Causey out working on his tractor. He would always wave and occasionally stop what he was doing just to chat. I feel truly blessed to be able to tell these stories, and will never forget the great memories of Mr. Carl Causey and the "Ole Pecan Orchard"###imported-begin##Whitney Smith###imported-end##
