“ Dear Emily, It has been so long since Pris and I have seen you and Bill. As you know, we were so looking forward to seeing the both of you last weekend, but it was not to be. When I think of Bill, I always remember a smiling face, never a sad one. I regret that I didn't get to see that smiling face one more time. Our thoughts are with you and your family during this time of loss.##imported-begin##Richard Brommer##imported-end##

“ Emily, Our thoughts are with you during this most difficult times. We will always remember the times that Bill would come over to our home to see what project we were involved with. We will never forget the time when Carol was cleaning out the drain. Bill asked: Aren't you afraid of what might be in there? Carol hadn't been concerned at that point, but... she began to think about his comment. Our prayers are with you. We will be down at Christmas. Our deepest sympathy. We will miss Bill so much.
