“ "All the love you created is still there. All the memories are still there. You live on in the hearts of everyone you have touched and nurtured while you were here....Death ends a life, not a relationship. "

Love you Uncle Bill. Thank you for everything you ever did for me and the example you set.

“ Dear Lori -

What a wonderful dad you were blessed with. I still remember the time he backed into my car when you guys lived on Amberly. My parents and i were just reminiscing about this over breakfast this morning. And of course we probably drove him crazy with all of our late night sleepovers and playing pinball in your basement. Such fun memories. Take care and my deepest condolences to you and your family.

“ On behalf of the Embassy Suites North Charleston sales team, I want to share our condolences to Kristin and her family on your loss. It's never easy when we lose someone we love and care about. You have been granted the opportunity to share lasting memories, interesting conversations, moments of laughter, funny thoughts and time spent that you can forever carry in your heart.

When the physical body no longer exists, his spirit will always live within each of you. Remember the cherished times and stay prayerful and strong during this difficult time. Also take comfort in knowing that there are many people that have the family in their thoughts and prayers.

We ask that God keep his protective blanket of love and compassion around each of you and we are here for you.

*Sincerely,
Your sales team*
