“ Dear Karen and family, We are so sad to hear of Donald's passing. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time. We think back fondly of the great neighbors you were to us in Christiansburg, and of all the good times we had. I'll never forget Donald helping Bill get the garage floor painted before our wedding. You were both always there to help out without our even asking. We will always love and remember the very special "Mayor of Fox Hollow", and will remember you in the days ahead. Hold on to all of your special memories, because I know you shared a lot of them. Bill and Linda Turpin Dublin, VA##imported-begin##Linda Semones Turpin##imported-end##

“ I did not get to know Don as well as I would have liked, but from the times I did see him while visiting John & Chris, I found him to be a kind and considerate neighbor. We did get to play golf together on one occasion and Don proved to be a fun companion and a gentleman in the way he conducted himself. I'm very saddened that he is gone, but I'll keep good memories of him and I hope time will ease your pain.##imported-begin##John Jaynes##imported-end##

“ Karen and Kimberleigh, I also have fond memories of Don. I was Curtis's first wife and got to know Don when I was dating Curtis. We used to borrow his '57 Chevy to date in. We lived 1 street apart in Pulaski and I was there when Pam was born. Such a beautiful baby she was, had a doll face. Don used to invite us over for spaghetti and boy was it spicy. He called me Pansyleigh and when I had my first daughter, I named her Jennifer Leigh from the days with the Hawkins' family. I also had a brief conversation with him in C'burg when you lived there. May you find peace in knowing that we that knew Don early in his life will always remember him as a kind person. Pansyleigh##imported-begin##Pansy Kemp Wimmer##imported-end##
