“ I was so sad to hear of Bill passing. He was truly a great man and a true friend to me and my family. His vast knowledge of the trucking industry and especially the safety aspect of it will surely be missed. Bill was a kind and gentle soul but knew when and where to draw the line when it came to truck safety. As a person he was one of the best friends I have ever had and will surely be missed by me and anyone who knew him well. My thoughts and prayers are with Burn and the entire family.
