“ Bigdad was a great grandfather and a wonderful inspiration to me as a child. I remember him driving me to school in the mornings and giving me one of his speeches on being a good student or playing nice with my friends. I really never understood his jokes until I was older but he made me laugh regardless. My family and I will miss Bigdad dearly. Love always- Shane, Yuki, Akira, Koji Shane Liddell ”

“ Dating his one and only daughter was a daunting experience, at first. He was a BIG man. But his warmth and sense of humor couldn't be suppressed for long. He was funny and fun and I soon grew to like Bill and Ann very, very much. I recall having to fly back from a vacation in Maine one summer with my dad to have stitches taken out of my right hand from a serious injury. We brought back live lobsters and took them to the Liddell house on Harvard and had a feast. It was and remains a fond memory. My condolences to Liz, Ann and the Liddell family.
