“ I knew Art Hawley as a young man as a teacher and as the headmaster of Waccamaw Academy in Conway, SC early in his teaching career. He was a man of enthusiasm in his endeavors and of truth and integrity. He shared these values with his students and coworkers. I lost track of his career after this. As a teacher, he helped shape many young lives. He will be missed. God’s peace be with him and all his friends and family.
