“ Crabby was great to me. He was funny, honest, fun to be around and one of the smartest men I ever got to know 'well'. He didn't pull punches, he didn't fight dirty, he told it like it was and I'll miss seeing him 'around' a lot. One of a kind, the man really loved his family and treasured his friends. I admired Crabby very much. He certainly brightened my day whenever I saw him.

“ Bill - you were one of the first people who welcomed us Yankees to South Carolina. That was 8 years ago! We always enjoyed your southern slant on everyday things and looked forward to conversations about "whatnot" at Creekratz. We wish you nothing but peace now and we are honored to have known you. Sleep well, friend - you will always be remembered. Pat & Mike.
