“ Polly, Think back to Toledo and the 60's. And then you and John recognized each other in the club house ... Bill was kind enough to take pictures and put some of John's oil paintings on the computer. Address was 139 Alexander Glennie but moved to Cincinnati area last fall. I am so sorry for what you have been through.

“ Polly and family. We are so sorry that Bill is no longer our neighbor. I am sure he will be missed by all that knew he and J.J. and their many walks and talks and treats for J.J. Ed has fond golf memories. I have memories of the past twelve years. Polly and Bill were the third couple we met when we moved to the Tradition. He will not be forgotten. We share your loss.

In sympathy,

“ I am so sorry for your loss. When Mac was alive and Bill walked J.J., they would stop off at our house and visit. Bill will be missed by many.
