“ It is not fair - we are not supposed to have to say good-bye to our children like this - My daughter was a good friend of Will's and he was in my home many times - he was an exceptional young man and just by meeting him you could tell his parents had done a wonderful job. You did everything right and he is in God's hands now. May that knowledge be of comfort to you in the hours, days, months and years to come.##imported-begin##Neci Johnson##imported-end##
