“ I can't remember when I didn't enjoy seeing Bill walk into a room. When he was working, he was the hardest worker, when he was just hanging out he was so much fun. He will be missed by all. Our sympathy is extended to Carrie and all who loved him.

“ Papa Bill's talent always amazed me. I admired him for his patience and ability when it came to carving intricate designs and patterns into wood. I still have one of the very first things he made for me, a little puzzle of a bear. Papa could also fix anything, even if he didn't have the right tools. I remember when we were putting cement outside one day and we didn't have the proper tool to spread it with. Instead, we improvised with a pie cutter. Later that day he let my sister and I put our hand prints in the cement. Papa Bill lives on through all of the many things he created, whether it be a carving, a photograph, a walkway, or a memory. Papa, you inspired me, made me laugh, and picked on me just like any grandpa should. There's so much more I wish I could have learned from you. I love you and I miss you. Love, Sarah.

“ My Dad was the kindest, strongest, friendliest and most easygoing person I've ever known. Everyone he had ever met liked him and he did it without trying. My Dad has always been a real Hero to me and I am so proud that he is my father. I've always been amazed how he could tackle any problem given to him with ease and confidence. My Dad was the kind of person I want to be like even though that is impossible. He is one in a million. I have never seen anyone like him. He was the real deal. Always honest, helpful and compassionate to anyone who needed him and He was the kind of guy who really would give you the shirt off his back. And how lucky am I that this person is MY father. That is my greatest blessing. How could anyone ever measure up adequately around this Great person? I've looked up to him my entire life thinking He is who I want to be like. I love you Dad and my life will never be the same without you. Love Dan

Dan, you have never met me, but I feel as if I know you and felt I knew your Dad. Your whole family has such special qualities and you all radiate smiles, love, talent and I feel as if I have known all of you in another life. I hurt deeply at your loss of such a wonderful man, father, husband and special friend to Darrell. I hope we will get to meet all of you face to face, and friend to friend some time in the near future. God's blessing to all of your family. Juliet and Ralph Lynch

The world has so few truly good and selfless inhabitants--Bill was one such man. He was my friend and "big brother". He leaves a big space and i will miss him.

He loved you more than you could ever imagine Seth! He loved how you took care of him, shielding him from falls, etc. He would always smile and say, "Did you see Seth watching out for me?" Love you so much honey. Mom-i
