“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as the comfort found in God's word the bible. Romans 5:12 says, "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ I was so saddened to hear of Mr. Mazzetti's passing. It was always such a pleasure to see the two of you. Mr. Mazzetti was a genuinely kind man. He expressed his courage and fortitude every day as he fought his cancer. He was an example to me of the human spirit's ability to transcend a terrible diagnosis and continue to live and engage with those around him. He certainly made a lasting impression on me and I will be better able to care for others because of knowing him.—and seeing your close and loving relationship.

I'm only a text away if you need anything, Sue.

“ Sue, so saddened to hear of your loss. I have so many special memories of my younger days with my cousin, Bill. How much fun we had playing and climbing the cherry tree with all our cousins in the back yard of Aunt Dil's house. These times together will always remain with me. May the many happy times you and Bill made during your life together see you through this difficult period. With much love,

“ Sue, so sorry for your loss. I remember Bill as the barbecue chef at one of our Project 128 get-togethers. A gracious host and an even finer gentleman. Thinking of you.
