“ To a man I admired in many ways. A man whose live touch so many, his wife, his children, his family, co-workers and friends even his dogs. He lived life with a zest and now he don't have to worry the Guardian Angels will safely guide him home. He will be missed soarly by everyone. To his wife, my friend Ticia Pierson just know that love, comfort,prayer and friendship is only a call away. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Trust in the Lord forever. “ My most sincere and heartfelt condolences are extended to each member of his family.I had the honor and privilage of meeting Bill on a few occasions, and those times will always be fondly remembered. As an Army veteran, I thank him and praise him for his courage and commitment to serve this country and because of that, we can have the freedom we all enjoy today and have a great country. Thank You Sir.Rest in Peace.##imported-begin##Howard Mancipe##imported-end##

“ A friend of forty years! So special. Always gave 100% to everyone and NEVER asked a thing from anyone. He loved the Lord, loved and adored his children & grandchildren and was the best friend anyone could have. We laughed together and cried together over the years and the memories are so sweet. Take comfort knowing he is with the Lord in a place that is beautiful (Rev. 21:18-22). Captain Bill you will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Louise Astin##imported-end##

“ Billiam was what I called him, or yelled whenever I got to see him. It made him smile. He was always full of life. I'm sure he is causing joy and laughter as we speak. I will miss you, Billiam. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I am so sad for your tremendous loss. To Brett and Heather, I am thinking of you two and have throughout the many years. Those apartment days were something special from a different time and different world. Love, Brenda Asin Carey##imported-begin##Brenda Astin Carey##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I did not have the privilege to know Mr. Pierson personally; however, I know that the death of a beloved family member is one of life's most difficult experiences. As a Bible student, I have learned how it saddens Jehovah God also, that Mr. Pierson has fallen asleep in death, since He never intended for anyone to die. In His great love and mercy, though, Jehovah "yearns" to reunite beloved family members again because He has promised that "there is going to be a resurrection..." in the near future (John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15). We are invited and encouraged at Psalms 27:14 to 'hope in Jehovah God and take heart.' Soon, He, through His son Jesus Christ, will take action to 'rid the earth of death, disease, and wickedness!' (Isaiah 25:8; Isaiah 33:24; Psalms 37:9-11, 29, 34) For now, may you find comfort and support from each other, from friends, and by means of the Holy Bible. You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Tammy Johnson##imported-end##
