“ If God should beckon me With outstretched hand And whisper softly Of an unknown land, I shall not be afraid to go, For though the path I do not know, I take His hand without fear, For He who safely brought me here Will also take me safely back, And though in many things I lack, He will not let me go alone Into the valley that's unknown, So I reach out and take His hand And journey to the Promised Land. \t\tBy Helen Steiner Rice Remembering Billy with fond memories and praying for peace during this sad time.##imported-begin##J.R. and Rita Ivey##imported-end##

“ This world has lost one of the greatest men anyone could have ever known! He was kind-hearted, loving, and honest. He will be missed dearly and he was a great friend! He was always there when someone needed to talk or hang out somewhere! He knew what to say at the right time and when you needed someone to be brutally honest. He knew when the right time to crack a joke was and the right time to be serious! His memory will live on in all of those who knew him. He was loved by all and will never be forgotten!###imported-begin##Audri Woessner###imported-end##

“ I have known Bill for several years. We worked together but it was so much more than that. We hit it off from the start. He was friendly, kind hearted, opinionated, head strong, and outgoing. He could always make me smile, no matter how bad a day I was having. Whether we were doing shipment, grabbing lunch, shooting pool, or hearing a band play, there was never a dull moment. There are people who come into your life that you know will be your long lifetime friend and that was us. This world has lost a GREAT man and Heaven has gained him! He made a huge impact on my life and I will never forget him.##imported-begin##KimberlyGasque##imported-end##
