“ So sorry for your loss. I wish I had some words of comfort but the only thing I know to say is just lean upon the Lord for he is the only one that can give comfort in a time like this. Freeman was not a man of many words but what I knew of him he was a kind and gentle man. We will keep your family in our thoughts and prayers. We all have an appointment with our creator and I hope and pray that anyone that does not know my Lord and Savior that they find him before it is too late, for eternity is a long time to be wrong.
